With an impressive musical sound system and a known music group, there will be live music from the biggest hits of Italy's most famous singer Vasco Rossi, which will be played during every entrance of the teams participating entering the specifically built round area which is the only one in Europe.

The location of the event is the Palavaiilant, a unique structure in itself, with a length of 60 meters, wide 30 and with a height of 23 metres. There is a space of 1800 squared metres that hosts concerts, sporting events, shows and manifestations of every kind with a staff of 1600.
